25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

FROM : Chief, LETS

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #23

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None.

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. The Ad hoc Committee that developed plans for language development programs met on Friday to review drafts of two regulations designed by the Plans and Policy Staff to implement the programs. A revised draft has been prepared and will be submitted to members of the Committee for their final approval.

2. The Agency's first intensive (full-time) course [redacted] began this week and will run for eighteen weeks. Included as students in the course are three people from EE and one from Security. [redacted] are conducting the course, with the assistance of [redacted] Georgetown and [redacted] 25X1

3. The Agency's first intensive (full-time) course [redacted] began this week with two JOT's and one person from SE.

4. Final arrangements are being completed for the summer [redacted] At present it appears as though seventeen persons will attend as students.

5. All necessary papers for the summer program [redacted] will be prepared before the end of the week. 25X1

6. At the invitation of ORR [redacted] met with division Chiefs from the Economic Research Area to consider development of an internal course(s) aimed at meeting ORR needs for training statistics. It was agreed that (a) traditional courses as presented at local universities were inappropriate and (b) a program for analysts on the various aspects of handling quantitative data (including some statistics) would be very appropriate. It was further agreed by [redacted] that the latter program could be developed and offered internally in the early fall. [redacted]
